

PREVIEW

International Esthetics, Cosmetics & Spa Conference (IECSC)

From March 8-10, the Javits Convention Center on Manhattan's west side is projected to host 250 exhibitors and nearly 15,000 spa and wellness professionals for IECSC New York.

General admission grants access to more than 60 product-focused education courses, taught by a range of professional skincare and beauty industry experts. Other courses include dozens of sessions on spa business and wellness education. An advanced business seminar, makeup workshop and advanced education workshop, plus CIDESCO Section USA Education, are available for extra fees.

Among the educators and professionals who will be speaking and teaching at the event are: Karen Asquith of G.M. Collin, Natalie Aston of FarmHouse Fresh, Sonia Boghosian of Bio Jouvance, Loïna Campagna of Satin Smooth, Barbara Devlin of PCA Skin, Jennifer Huffman of Universal Companies, M'Lisa Jackson of M'lis, Boldijarje Koronczay of Éminence, Stephanie Laynes of PFB Vanish, Dasha Saian of SAIAN, Lydia Sarfati of Repêchage, Dori Soukup of InSPAration Management, community ambassador and DAYS SPA contributor Lisa Starr, Aleks Vranicic of Vitelle Dermatology Laboratories, Margie Winn of Sesha Skin Therapy, and Gül Zone and Dr. Robert Zone of DermAware.

This event marks the first of three 2015 IECSC shows in 2015: IECSC Las Vegas will take place in June, and IECSC Florida is slated for November.
